KUNST BULLETIN

short — clear — precious

Those looking to stay informed about what's going on in the world of art should look no further than the Kunstbulletin. With more than 20,000 readers per issue, Kunstbulletin is the most widely read art journal in Switzerland. We publish ten editions a year, providing features such as artist profiles, interviews with art experts, exhibition reviews, theoretical pieces, tender offers, jobs in the art sector and the most comprehensive exhibition calendar in Europe, all in one handy publication. Since 1968, our journal has enabled local stakeholders in the art industry to gain recognition on the national and international stage.

Kunstbulletin is published by the Swiss Art Association, a non-profit organisation currently made up of 36 local and regional art associations. As well as the printed journal, we also run a comprehensive online research portal which will re-launch in 2023 with a new, modern look. In 2020, we launched the progressive web app artlist.net. Free to use, the app provides information about current exhibitions and public art directly to the user's device – any time, any place. For those interested in art, then, Kunstbulletin is an essential publication within the Swiss art landscape. By advertising in our magazine or on our website, you can strike the right tone in the right place.
